AUDITORS' REPORT

TO THE MEMBERS OF HELPAGE INDIA

1. We have audited the attached Balance Sheet of HelpAge India, a Society registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860 as at March 31, 2011 and the related Income and Expenditure Account for the year ended on that date, both of which we have signed under reference to this report. These financial statements are the responsibility of the management of the Society. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.
2. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in India. Those Standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.
3. We report that:
  - (a) We have obtained all the information and explanations, which to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purposes of our audit;
  - (b) In our opinion, proper books of account have been kept by the Society so far as appears from our examination of those books;
  - (c) The Balance Sheet and the Income & Expenditure Account dealt with by this report are in agreement with the books of account;
  - (d) In our opinion, the Balance Sheet and Income and Expenditure Account dealt with by this report have been prepared in compliance with the applicable accounting standards issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.
4. In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the said accounts read together with the notes thereon / attached thereto give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India:
  - (a) in the case of the Balance Sheet, of the state of affairs of the Society as at March 31, 2011; and
  - (b) in the case of the Income and Expenditure Account, of the excess of expenditure over income for the year ended on that date.

SCHEDULE 14*SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND NOTES TO ACCOUNTS FOR THE YEAR ENDED MARCH 31, 2011*1. Significant Accounting Policies*(i) Basis of Accounting

The financial statements have been drawn up under the historical cost convention, on an accrual basis, in accordance with applicable accounting standards issued by The Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

(ii) Fixed Assets

Fixed assets are stated at cost of acquisition including taxes, duties, freight and other incidental expenses relating to acquisition and installation.

Assets purchased from specific grants are netted off against the capital grant received and the balance, if any, capitalised.

Intangible assets are recorded at the consideration paid for acquisition.

(iii) Depreciation

Depreciation is charged on the Straight Line Method on a pro rata basis over the estimated useful life of assets at the following rates:

Building	2.5 %
Air-cooling Plant and Air conditioners	20 %
Electrical Fittings	15 %
Computers	33.33 %
Office Equipments	33.33 %
Furniture and Fixtures	10 %
Vehicles	20 %
Medical Equipments	20 %

Computer Software is amortised over a period of three years on a straight line basis. All assets costing individually less than or equal to Rs. 5,000 each are fully depreciated in the year of purchase.

(iv) Investment

Long-term investments are stated at cost. They are suitably adjusted to recognise permanent diminution in value, if any. Current Investments are valued at cost or market value, whichever is lower.

(v) Foreign Exchange Transactions

Foreign Currency transactions are recorded at the rates existing at the date on which the transactions take place. Year-end receivables and payables, if any, are translated at year-end rates of exchange. Exchange differences are appropriately dealt with in the Income and Expenditure Account, except those relating to fixed assets, which are capitalized.

(vi) Retirement Benefits

(a) Defined Contribution Plan:

Contribution to the provident fund and family pension fund is made in accordance with the provisions of the Employees Provident Fund and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1962 and is recognised as an expense on an accrual basis.

(b) Defined Benefit Plans:

The liability for Leave Encashment and Gratuity is provided on the basis of an actuarial valuation done by an independent actuary at the year-end on the basis of 'Projected Unit Credit Actuarial Method'. The Society contributes yearly, to schemes administered by the Life Insurance Corporation of India and Kotak Mahindra Old Mutual Life Insurance Limited to discharge its gratuity liability to the employees. In addition suitable adjustment is made in the accounts to bring the gratuity liability in line with the actuarial valuation on the basis of "Projected Unit Credit Actuarial Method" at the year end.

(vii) Income Recognition

(a) Donations

Restricted project grants are recognised as income in the year disbursed to various projects.

Others grants/donations are accounted for in the year of receipt or on receipt of sanction, whichever is earlier.

Funds received for restricted projects remaining unutilised on the completion of the project are written back as other grants/donations in the year in which they are no longer deemed to be payable.

Donations received in kind are not valued or accounted for in the books of account.

me g ll ll

(b) Other Income

Amounts received to meet administration expenses are recognised as income in full on receipt.

Surplus/Deficit from alternate channels for revenue generation is recognised on an accrual basis.

Dividend/interest on investments (including donated investments) is accounted for when the right to receive the income is established.

(viii) Expenditure

Grants made to projects carried out through partner agencies are accounted for upon the payments falling due in accordance with respective agreements.

Endowments to old age homes, which give HelpAge India a right to use of rooms in the homes, are accounted for as grants disbursed.

2. Cost Allocation:

The Society apportions the Central Support costs incurred to Fund Raising cost, Applications of funds to Projects for the Welfare of the Aged (Programmes) and Governance, the basis of apportionment being as considered appropriate and determined by the management. The Central Support costs include the costs of Central/State office functions such as general management, payroll administration, budgeting and accounting, information technology, human resources etc.

(a) All expenses are classified under headings that aggregate all cost relating to the categories/activity. Central Support costs are allocated to activities relating to Programmes, Governance and Fund Raising on the basis of their use of Central Support Services.

(b) The costs on fundraising material providing information about the aims, objectives and the issues of the elderly in an educational manner in furtherance of the Society's objectives are apportioned to Programmes.

3. Donations received by the Society qualify for deduction under Section 35AC / Section 80G and Section 80GGA of the Income Tax Act, 1961 in terms of approvals received as under:

- (a) Amounts received up to Rs. 170 (one hundred seventy) crores under Section 80GGA and Section 35AC of the Income Tax Act, 1961, vide Letter Ref No. F.No.270/201/1992-NC dated 28.04.2011 with a copy of the Notification No. S.O. 880(E) dated 27.04.2011 amending the Notification No. 602(E) dated 12.08.1993 for approval of the project or scheme for "Medical care to older persons, leprosy and
